CAT SITTING CHECKLIST FOR CAT OWNERS

PLAN AHEAD:

By planning ahead, you will save your cat sitter a lot of hassle, leaving them more time to spend playing with your fur baby(s) please check off as you go along

Arrange to meet the sitter a few days before you leave take them through your cats routine and give them keys
Call your vet ahead of time and leave a credit card number in case of emergency
When providing an extra key, be sure it works first
Have extra supplies available in the event you cannot return when expected.
Leave everything needed for the cat sitter in one general area i.e. food treats, toys and cleaning products
If requiring night visits put a timer on lights so they can find the keyhole easily
Leave a key with a neighbour or friend in case of emergency or extreme weather
Alert the alarm company of authorised person in your home
Make sure all cats are wearing their collars with identification
Put new fresh batteries in electronic collars
Leave some emergency numbers behind i.e friend, neighbour, electrician etc
Make sure you have sitters contact details with you.
